

Batooga Scarf

design by Alicia Chen

Batooga is a fun and easy scarf for the first-time knitter. The scarf wraps around your neck several times to keep you warm, and the colors will brighten up any wardrobe in the winter. It is also a great way to use leftover Shokay yarn from other projects!

Difficulty:

Beginner

Materials:

1 skein each of Shokay's Shambala 100% pure yak down in Alpine, Orchid, Earth, Meadow, Regal, Cranberry, Azure, Himalaya, Dusty Wind, Dusk

OR left over Shokay yarn from other projects

US #8 (5mm) needles

Finished Measurements:

Width: 7 inches

Length: 71 inches

Gauge:

19sst x 22 row = 4" in stockinette stitch

Cast on 34 stitches in with a chain cast-on.

In stockinette stitch:

knit 5 rows of Alpine

knit 12 rows of Orchid

Repeat pattern, substituting Orchid with other colors in the following order

Orchid

Earth

Meadow

Regal

Cranberry

Azure

Himalaya Sunset

Dusk

Repeat the entire color sequence two more times.

Finishing

Weave in loose ends, wet block, and wrap yourself up in delicious colors! .

Biography

Alicia is a futbol guru intent on saving the environment. Curiously, she works in the accounting department of a multinational corporation. In her spare time, she composes songs with a guitar and an egg, listens to indie-pop and worships ManUtd. Nicknamed Batooga, she can be seen wearing scarves in any weather condition, even in the humid Shanghai summers.

SHOKAY
www.shokay.com

Pattern donated to Shokay Design Circle by Alicia Chen